

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

RS23824

This bill, known as Alexis' Law, provides a limited affirmative defense for the possession of or use of cannabidiol (CBD) oil, a type of hemp oil containing only trace amounts of tetrahydrocannabinol, which can reduce the number and duration of seizures in children and adults living with epilepsy. Alexis' Law is named for a 10 year-old girl living in Idaho who suffers from Dravet Syndrome, a form of intractable epilepsy.
